01 Company Overview

Projexian LLC is an American small business that primes federal facility service contracts and delivers them through vetted local small-business partners, with one accountable point of contact for the contracting officer and COR. We also provide government contracting support, business development and lead generation for companies entering the public-sector market.

02 Core Competencies

- Facility services: janitorial and custodial, grounds and snow removal, pest control, refuse and recycling, building support
- Rentals and logistics: equipment and truck rental, local and specialized freight, moving and site support
- Contract management: scheduling, quality control inspections, corrective action and performance reporting
- Opportunity intelligence: daily tracking of federal procurement, market and competitor research
- Business development: teaming, subcontracting and prime contractor relationships

03 Differentiators

- One point of contact from award through closeout
- Nationwide reach through local partners near each place of performance
- Compliance first: wage determinations, insurance, background checks and site access confirmed before start
- Responsive: every new solicitation in our codes is reviewed the morning it posts
